Students, by looking at the lamp through a slit formed by their fingers, can see the diffraction pattern formed by a single slit of variable width.

Single-filment incandescent lamp with red filter. Place the lamp on the lecture table.