Use a cubical box approximately 14" on a side, painted black outside and white inside, and having a 1 1/4" diameter hole in the hinged front. Set the box in the center of the lecture table, with the hole toward the students. Note that the hole appears even blacker than the black-painted outside surface. Upon opening the hinged front, it is surprising to find that the entire interior is painted white. Explain.