Set rear feet of the horse in groove of special stand. Horse and rider assembly is stable, even though the horse is raring, since the center of gravity of the assembly is directly below the rear feet.