Use 10-lb or 12.5-lb test fish cord.

The lower cord should be wrapped around two or more fingers several times to avoid slipping, and perhaps cutting the fingers.

A steady pull at P breaks the cord above the weight.

A jerk at P breaks the cord below the weight. Since the cord stretches appreciably, the quick jerk should start with several inches of slack in the lower cord.