This device for the overhead projector consists of a Plexiglass plate, two movable pins, and two different-sized loops of string. It demonstrates the mathematical construction of circles and ellipses.

To draw an ellipse, place the two pins in selected holes, and put one of the loops around them. Put a WASHABLE marker in the loop and move it around the limits of its travel. Use a single post to draw a circle.